CLOSED NEW YEAR'S DAY LIMIT RIGHTS RESERVED

174th AND CRENSHAW

A ROUSING GOOD TIME was had by employees and staff of Riviera Hospital at their second annual Christmas Party Dec. 20 at the Jump 'N Jack Restaurant. Over 100 people attended the affair. The group danced to the music of Mort Fager and his Orchestra.

Fair Plans May Include Site in Torrance Area

A World's Fair in Los Angeles County, possible in the Dominguez area, has been announced for 1963.

The fair will be held on 1500 acres, and 100,000,000 persons are expected to see it. J. A. Smith, president of California World's Fair, Inc., announced.

All fair buildings will be constructed for permanent use, and eventually revert to the state.
